Continuing Educational Credits

This program has an application pending for approval by the Kentucky Bar Association for 12.5 hours (annual requirement) of CLE credits including 2 hours of Ethics credits.

CompEd, Inc.

CompEd, Inc. is a Kentucky non-profit corporation formed to conduct Workers Compensation seminars and to further the educational endeavors of the Kentucky practitioners, labor leaders, claims adjusters, risk management specialists, and claims managers.

In December of 2009, the corporation will once again publish an annotated version of the statutes with the Rules and Regulations of the Office of Workers Claims. The 2008 publication is now available with a CD-ROM version.

For information, official forms and opinions of the Board, Court of Appeals and Supreme Court, please visit the corporation's web site: www.comped.net.

Profits from these activities are annually donated to organizations that service or benefit the practitioners of workers compensation. Since 1991, CompEd has provided over $500,000 for legal scholarships to the three law schools of Kentucky.
